WHO'S WHO 1937

AN ANNUAL BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY WITH WHICH IS INCORPORATED

"MEN AND WOMEN OF THE TIME"

EIGHTY-NINTH YEAR OF ISSUE

A. & C. BLACK LIMITED
4, 5 & 6 SOHO SQUARE LONDON W.1

Printed in Great Britain

NOTE

As it is necessary to begin printing WHO'S WHO in August, in many cases occurrences of a later date are not recorded; deaths reported up to the middle of October have been included, however, in the Obituary.

In view of misunderstandings that sometimes arise it should be pointed out that the statements in regard to children of a marriage should be the number of sons and daughters now living; also, under Clubs it is the practice to print the names of London clubs without the word London at the end, although in the case of clubs elsewhere the name of the towns where they are situated should be given.

It is well to bear in mind that a proof for correction cannot be sent unless there is an address. As any sort of correction, even well-meant attempts to cut down biographies, involves expense, it is requested that no alterations should be made unless absolutely necessary. Corrections must be made on the proofs themselves, and not written out on separate slips of paper.

Anyone who has had the Companionage of a British Order conferred on him and has not yet been included is invited to write for a form on which to fill in particulars as to birth, parentage, career, etc., for the next edition.
